SYNOPSIS:

On October 29, 2009, at about 6:15 PM hours, Sheriff's Deputies from the Santee Station received a radio call of a robbery that just occurred at the Sally Beauty Supply Business located at 9625 Mission Gorge Rd. The suspect entered the store, showed the clerk a black handgun he had in a plastic bag and demanded cash. The male did not point the weapon at anyone. The male suspect left the store on foot and walked out of view of the store employees. There was no vehicle seen associated with the robbery. The loss was an undetermined amount of cash. Deputies arrived and checked the area with the assistance of a Sheriff's Helicopter (ASTREA). No suspects were located. The suspect was described as an Asian male in his 40's, wearing a blue baseball cap, a blue windbreaker and khaki shorts. Based on the description and method used in the robbery, San Diego Police Detective Brown believes the case is possibly related to a robbery series in their jurisdiction. The investigation is continuing.
