SYNOPSIS:

On June 7, 2018, at approximately 2:39 p.m., deputies responded to a report of a possible residential burglary at the Park Encinitas Mobile Home Park, located at 444 N. El Camino Real, Encinitas. The reporting party indicated a black male adult had walked into a neighbor's residence. The reporting party confronted the male because he did not recognize him as being the resident who lived there. After being confronted, the male left the residence and got into a black SUV and drove away. Deputies checked the area and located the matching vehicle on El Camino Real. Deputies stopped the vehicle and contacted the driver of the vehicle. The driver was positively identified as the male subject who had been in the residence. He was later identified as Kellen Winslow, II, age 35. Winslow was placed under arrest for residential burglary and booked into custody at the Vista Detention Facility.
