SYNOPSIS:

A man is in custody following a pursuit that started in Lemon Grove, Ca and ended in Bonita, Ca in a foot pursuit. The suspect, Robert Perez, 26 years of age, was arrested for 273.5 PC- Domestic Violence, 236 PC- False Imprisonment, 459 PC-Burglary and 2800.2(a) CVC-Felony Evading.

Perez was seen leaving the scene of a reported domestic violence incident at an apartment complex in Lemon Grove. As deputies attempted to conduct a vehicle stop on Perez, Perez drove away at a safe speed, but refused to stop his vehicle. Upon entering the highways, Perez increased his speed to over 100 Mph.

Perez eventually parked his vehicle at 2920 Briarwood Rd and fled on foot into an occupied apartment in the 3000 block of Plaza Mercia, Bonita. The apartment resident tried to leave but was not allowed to by the suspect. Eventually the resident was able to run out of the residence and alert officers searching for Perez. Perez was taken into custody inside the apartment.

Deputies from the Lemon Grove Station and Rancho San Diego Station, assisted by ASTREA, San Diego PD K9 and National City PD K9 responded to this incident.
