On November 14, 2017 at about 6:18 PM, deputies from the Sheriff's Imperial Beach Station responded to a report of an assault with a deadly weapon near the intersection of Donax Avenue and Florence Street in the city of Imperial Beach. When deputies arrived, they found a Hispanic male adult in the roadway with an apparent gunshot wound. Deputies and Fire Department personnel attempted life saving measures but the male succumbed to his injuries. There were multiple witnesses in the area who are being interviewed about this case. No arrests have been made in this case at this time. The cause and manner of death is pending an autopsy by the Medical Examiner. The identity of the victim will be released after positive confirmation and family notification.
