SYNOPSIS:

A sheriff's investigator developed information of the whereabouts of a known parolee-at-large named Brandon Worley. Worley was also wanted for his connection to a stolen assault rifle. A plan was developed to surveil the location and attempt to apprehend Worley. On July 16, 2017, at approximately 9:25 a.m., deputies spotted Worley and attempted to conduct a vehicle stop on him.

Worley refused to yield and led deputies on a vehicle pursuit that went through the cities of El Cajon, Rancho San Diego, Alpine, and ended in Descanso. Top speeds during the pursuit reached approximately 79 miles per hour. Spike strips were deployed disabling both tires on the drivers' side. Worley continued to drive with disabled tires and eventually yielded at Viejas Grade Road in Descanso. Worley was taken into custody without further incident and was booked for an outstanding parole violation, felony evading, and other unrelated charges.
