

Course Title:		Force Option Simulator (8 hr FOS)
Certification:		STC # 06631114
Certification Date:		01/05/23
Expiration Date:		01/05/25
Review Date:		12/05/24
Time Block	Estimated Time	Learning Objective	Topic	Brief Overview of Topic/Instruction	Instructor
O700	O715	N/A	Introduction	Instructor Introduction and overview of course. Depending on size, the class may be split into 3 groups: lecture, defensive tactics and force option simulator room	DTU Staff
O730	O930	Identify the changes in use of force law, Identify department policy which will assist to reduce potential individual and department liability utilizing de-escalation techniques.	LECTURE STATION: De-escalation, law and P&P	Students will review de-escalation and the importance it plays in our jobs. Students will discuss the following topics: barriers to de-escalation, AB 392, AB 392, PC 835, PC 196	DTU Staff
O930	1100	Identify proper responses to critical incidents, Apply proper handcuffing techniques, Apply first aid techniques when needed after a use of force.	DEFENSIVE TACTICS STATION: Handcuffing, first aid, office-involved shooting procedures	After a safety brief, students will be shown and demonstrate: handcuffing techniques, communication, lethal force options, first aid after an officer-involved shooting	DTU Staff
1100	1200	LUNCH BREAK
1200	1600	Justify decision making using critical thinking skills in line with department policy, identify proper practices and procedures in a realistic environment, Conduct a detailed debrief after scenarios with proctors in order to summarize actions as staff would do while on duty after a critical incident	FORCE OPTION SIMULATOR STATION: Students will demonstrate proficiency in critical incident management	After a safety brief, students will be shown 2-3 scenarios utilizing the the Force Option Simulator computer system. This system will simulate real-life scenarios deputies may face. Students are expected to respond and work through the scenario and debrief with a proctor afterwards.	DTU Staff

0:00 HOURS