PROCEDURE

Any incarcerated persons housed at the East Mesa Reentry Facility (EMRF) identified as requiring placement in a sobering cell will be transferred to San Diego Central Jail (SDCJ) for placement. If feasible, the incarcerated persons will be evaluated by EMRF and/or George Bailey Detention Facility Medical Staff prior to transportation, the transportation deputy will obtain the incarcerated persons property/clothing and face card, so the incarcerated persons can be properly accounted for when he arrives to SDCJ.

An Incident Report will be written linking the incarcerated persons involved and entered into JIMS.
