NUMBER:	O.3.S
SUBJECT:	INCARCERATED INDIVIDUAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

PROCEDURE

The following rules and regulations are specific to the South Bay Detention Facility, but violations of those specific rules will be charged under the most appropriate bureau-wide Incarcerated individual Rules and Regulation section.

I. SECTION 600 - CLOTHING AND BEDDING

651 Incarcerated individuals are required to wear long pants and a shirt except while sleeping in their bunks. (As it relates to Detentions P&P Section 0.3 Rule 605)

II. SECTION 700 - FACILITY SECURITY/SAFETY

751 Incarcerated individuals shall have (60) seconds to lockdown in their cells from the time the housing deputy uses the lockdown horn or when verbally ordered to do so. (As it relates to Detentions P&P Section 0.3 Rule 701)

752 Incarcerated individuals shall not close cell doors in the housing units unless directed or authorized by staff. (As it relates to Detentions P&P Section 0.3 Rule 701)

754 Incarcerated individuals shall not go beyond the red limit line around the module stairwell or in front of the deputy's station until instructed to do so by a deputy. (As it relates to Detentions P&P Section 0.3 Rule 701)
