SUBJECT: Update to Pauma Valley Deputy Involved Shooting

LOCATION: 15000 block of Adams Drive, Pauma Valley

DATE/TIME: December 20, 2018 / 4:12 p.m.

VICTIMS: Withheld

SUSPECT: Jose Nieto, Age 28

Updated information:
Jose Nieto, a twenty-eight-year-old Pauma Valley man was arrested for three counts of PC 664-187(A) Attempted Murder of a Peace Officer and three counts of PC 245 (D)(1) Assault of a Peace Officer with a Firearm. He was booked in absentia. He is being held without bail, under guard at a local hospital and will be arraigned this week.

Information from prior release:
Deputies responded to a 9-1-1 call from a man who said he needed help and didn’t feel safe in his home. As the deputies approached the front door, they were met by gunfire from within the home. All three deputies returned fire, established a perimeter around the home and called for additional resources, including the Sheriff's Special Enforcement Detail (SED). After attempts to establish communication with the male were unsuccessful, SED Deputies entered the home and found a male inside with an apparent gunshot wound to his lower body.

The male was taken into custody for the attempted murder of a peace officer and transported by ambulance to a local hospital for treatment. He is expected to survive. The deputies were not injured in the exchange of gunfire.
